by HERMAN LANDON

Author of 'The Forbidden Door' Landon writes another thrilling mystery story, the adventures of 'the Gray Phantom'

SHAPING in his flannel suit and green bedroom slippers, Pendleton Craig sat at his window and contemplated the landscape and a typical May morning. It was a typical May morning, with a humid air and a light sprinkling of rain. The air was heavy with the sticky, oppressive heat of the season. The rain was a welcome relief, but it was not the relief he needed. He needed to get away from this place, from this life. He needed to find a way out.

misgivings that always assailed him at certain times and especially on gloomy days. The way out was not a simple one. It was a path of mystery and danger, a path that led to the unknown. But he was determined to find it. He was determined to escape.

"THE GRAY PHANTOM"

So carefully did he guard his movements on such occasions that not more than six persons knew his whereabouts and these could be trusted not to talk. As for the inhabitants of the village half a mile back from the shore line they rarely came in contact with the occupants of Tuckaway Camp and their curiosity concerning them went ungratified.

Craig Looked as Though He Had Secret Worries

UNDENIABLY, Pendleton Craig looked the part of one who had secret worries. He was a thin, pale man with a serious expression on his face. His eyes were dark and deep-set, and his lips were thin and firm. He was a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide.

J. PENDLETON CRAIG

spoke in a low, hoarse voice, and his eyes were fixed on the ground. He was a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide. He was a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide.

And He Showed Symptoms of an Uneasy Conscience

It was a sad reflection on a man who had been so successful in his life. He had been a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide. He had been a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide.

He was a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide. He was a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide. He was a man of mystery, a man who seemed to have a great deal to hide.

GIRL'S FATHER BRINGS CHARGE AGAINST AGENT

MINISTER PROTESTS

Two Dry Officers May Be Held for Crabbe Act Violations at Lancaster

By International News Service
News of high pressure methods allegedly used by State Probation Agents Ed Little and John O. Cole reached Ohio today.
Latest developments in the liquor situation are:
(1) An affidavit was issued for the arrest of Ed Little on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a Lancaster girl.
(2) Rev. George I. Cooper of the Union Rescue Mission at Lorain protested to Governor Cooper on the grounds of his personal last night John O. Cole headed the raiding party the minister charged. He in

DECLARES AGENTS WERE INTOXICATED

LANCASTER, May 2.—State Probation Agents Ed Little and John O. Cole were drunk in the home of Mrs. H. L. Lersch here according to allegations made public today by Prosecutor Russell Cunningham.
Cunningham declared that Mrs. Lersch came to his office today and told him of the incident. The dry agents were then accompanied by two women the county official stated.
The prohibition officers became exceedingly intoxicated, Cunningham charged. This occurred one night while the agents were engaged in their clean up of Lancaster, the prosecutor charged.

It was not secret that Mr. Lersch was an extremely wealthy man and that the firm of Craig & Sarg was one of the most aggressive and prosperous brokerage houses in New York. It was now a one-man concern, the junior member having died some years since but its far-reaching activities were so thoroughly organized that its founder's frequent absences did not in the slightest degree affect the smooth running order of the establishment.
Mr. Craig sometimes boasted that he had gained his enviable position in the financial world through pluck and hard work plus an occasional stroke of good luck. He had made the most of it, he said, and almost convinced himself it was true. It had a very subtle soothing flavor of which his nerves were sadly in need especially on gloomy days like the present. In periods of acute depression he would fortify himself with the argument that no one would accuse him of having gained his wealth dishonestly, so far as anyone knew he had conducted himself in strict accordance with the law. It was true for the only man who could have disputed this lofty contention was dead.

PASTOR PROTESTS RAIDING OF HOME

Lorain Minister Demands Cooper Investigate Actions of Officers

COLUMBUS, May 2.—That John O. Cole suspected dry agent participated in the raid on the Union Rescue mission at Lorain last night was definitely established today by Acting Probation Director Sam K. Beetham.
The dry officer in a statement to the press announced he had talked over long distance telephone with George Brynham, state dry agent in charge of the Lorain district, with headquarters at Sandusky and that Brynham said he participated in the Lorain raid which was based on information furnished by Cole.
Brynham also told Beetham Cole was one of the members of the Lorain raiding party.

LORAIN, May 2.—Further criticism was directed against state prohibition agents today as the result of their alleged forcible entry without a warrant into the parsonage of Rev. George I. Cooper here last night.
According to the story the raiders numbering about 15 had set out to enter an alleged speakeasy in the same building with the Union Rescue mission. A quantity of alleged

May Day Burlesque Ends as 300 Co-eds Attack Men

OXFORD, May 2.—Vassar university here settled back into complacency today following an open brawl between the men and co-ed students which resulted in a fire for all in front of the town fountain.
But as it was all in fun there are no hard feelings to mend in days though several youths are reported recovering from bruises inflicted by the co-eds.
The co-eds did not come out of the battle unscathed however for according to witnesses, several of them were tossed bodily into the fountain.
It all happened when the men students attempted to stage the crowning of the king of May a burlesque on the crowning of the queen of May, an annual observance at the university.
Just as the males were grouped about the fountain and ready to make the whoopee 300 co-eds charged them. The onslaught lasted for almost a half an hour.

THREEL, dealer out of the ordinary specimens of baby chicks are among the latest products at the Ohio Hatchery north of the city.
Tuesday two Albino chicks at the white leghorn variety were found in the hatchery output. These chicks are entirely devoid of coloring due to lack of pigmentation. Specimens of this kind are said to be very rare.
The morning the hatchery's exhibit of freakish chicks was augmented by the arrival of a tiny white leghorn provided with four legs. The two species being catered where the normal baby chick is adorned with a tail. This little fellow is tailless.
The three odd newcomers will not be shipped out but are held at the hatchery for exhibition.

TWO ENTRIES NOW IN CITY PRIMARY LIST

Candidate for Mayor and One for Council Only Early Office Seekers EXPECT OTHERS SOON
Time Limit for Entering Race for Nominations Only Six Weeks Off

By W. I. BUCHANAN
Marion Star Staff Writer
With only two persons having declared their intentions of becoming candidates for city offices in the fall primary, Marion politicians and potential office seekers apparently are not taking their politics seriously. In other words, the local political pot has not yet begun to boil.
Six weeks ago the pot simmered slightly when Fred Haskell, 601 North Prospect st., filed his declaration for candidacy for mayor. He immediately afterwards however the brood cooled down to normal. An other star was created this week when Charles L. Gilbert, 871 Belle fountain av. declared his intention of seeking the nomination for councilman of the third ward.
Haskell and Gilbert are the only two candidates in the field so far. Haskell, the candidate for mayor, is a Republican and is employed in the office of the Marion Steam Shore Co. Gilbert is a Democrat and a carpenter.

ERIE IN NEED OF MORE MEN

Local Freight Transfer Handling Largest Business in History
Business at the Erie freight transfer here is the heaviest in its history and additional men are needed to handle the work.
A L. Conrad local Erie agent, announced today that 10 workmen are needed immediately at the transfer for employment as truckmen. The company is seeking high class laborers who can be depended upon to work steadily.

Contract Ended
The demand for laborers comes as a result of the Erie having taken over entire direction of operations at the transfer recently when the contract plan in effect during the last 10 years expired. The firm holding the contract employed chiefly laborers from the outside. The Erie Conrad says wants to use Marion labor exclusively.

Wages range from 40 cents to 70 cents an hour and men who give meritorious service are always advanced the local agent says.
Later this month the work will be placed on a tonnage basis providing practical assurance of increased earnings for the employees. There will be a guarantee of 40 cents an hour minimum. Men are wanted for employment in all departments at the transfer.

ALMA, May 2.—Temporary insanity following child birth caused Mrs. Margaret Hollop, 20, to drown her two-month-old baby Edward in a tub of water and then shoot herself through the chest at her farm home near here today.

The baby is dead and the woman is in a dying condition in a local hospital.
Police declared she attempted to take poison tablets, and also to hang herself, before she finally procured a revolver and fired a bullet into her chest, seriously wounding the heart.

LIGHTNING HITS MAN CAUGHT IN STORM'S PATH

Norman Dunbar Felled by Bolt on Farm Near Prospect

HAIL DAMAGES PROPERTY

Violent Gale, with Wintry Wave Forecast Today in Wake of Storm

One man was struck by lightning, near Prospect and damage estimated to reach thousands of dollars was done by a hail and electric storm which struck central Ohio yesterday afternoon.
The victim of the lightning bolt was Norman Dunbar, 41, who lives on the Merchant & Watkins farm three miles south of Prospect. He was reported to be in a serious condition this morning as a result of burns from the bolt.
Dunbar was in a field planting corn when the storm broke. He was felled unconscious by the bolt. His farm was knocked to the ground and ruined. According to reports from physicians Dunbar was delivered during the night but regained consciousness this morning.

Found by Relative
Dunbar was found about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Nellie Davis of near Richmond, a sister in law who has been staying at the Dunbar home since Mrs. Dunbar returned from a Columbus hospital where she recently underwent an operation. According to reports this morning the victim was found lying prostrate near his corn planter.

Shortly after the storm broke Dunbar's team came to the barn but the driver failed to appear. Mrs. Davis investigated and found the farmer unconscious in the field. It is thought that rain accompanying the storm caused Dunbar to regain consciousness for a few moments during which time he cut his team loose from the planter. Members of the family believe that later he again became unconscious.

Badly Burned
William Trees, a neighbor, was called to assist in taking Dunbar to the house. An examination by a physician revealed that the left side of his face and body were badly burned by the lightning. A hole was punctured in a tobacco gun in a left breast pocket. His hat was also full of small holes caused by the bolt.
A hail storm that accompanied the lightning swept a wide path from west to east extending from west of Oxford station to east of Mt. Pleasant. According to reports this morning few of the hail stones were smaller than hickory nuts and many were as large as walnuts. In some cases they were as large as

SEARCH MADE FOR MISSING COLLEGE BOY

Marvin Rife, 17, Wooster Student, Not Seen Since Saturday

AUTHORITIES NOTIFIED

Hunt for Former Harding High Honor Pupil Centers at Pittsburgh

Search for Marvin Rife 17, of Marion sophomore at Wooster college who has been missing since Saturday was renewed today when he failed to return to the college yesterday as expected.
The last information regarding Rife comes from Miss Janet Hodgson, whom he visited in Pittsburgh, Pa. She told college officials he had left the Hodgson home Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock planning to pick up his baggage at the Seventh Avenue hotel and catch a bus for Wooster. Police in Pittsburgh and other cities are notified in a search for the missing youth.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Rife 105 Superior st., parents of the missing boy, left for Wooster early this morning on the second trip for Mr. Rife who with his son John went to Wooster Tuesday afternoon and returned Thursday night, satisfied that her son had been found.

Left Wooster Friday
Account of Rife's disappearance as learned from college officials and college friends indicated that he left Wooster Friday afternoon to visit Miss Hodgson, after borrowing $20 from a friend. Rife had met Miss Hodgson through her visit with Mrs. Rife who with her son John went to Wooster Tuesday afternoon and returned Thursday night, satisfied that her son had been found.

College officials were not alarmed over Rife's failure to appear in Wooster Monday, thinking he was at his home here. A letter from home addressed to him indicated that he did not intend to spend the weekend here. Through Miss Hodgson and the boy from whom Rife had borrowed $20 the Pittsburgh trip was revealed. Rife had been found, but was still planning to arrive in Wooster yesterday. The second search today was initiated by his failure to return.

Marvin Rife is a sophomore in the college of military at Wooster and is sports editor of the college paper. He graduated from Harding High a high honor in 1927 with honors at the age of 17, having "skipped" two years in the grade schools because of excellent showing in his studies.

The boy was born John and Kennedy who lives with his parents at the Rife home on Riverdale av. A dispatch from Pittsburgh today says Rife was reported well up in his studies and that authorities can assign no motive for what the dispatch terms the "voluntary" disappearance. It is believed that he did not meet with foul play, the news report says.

GIBSON HITS PLANS OF GERMANY, SOVIET

Leads Offensive Against Proposal for Direct Limitation of War Materials

GENEVA, May 2—Herb Gibson, representative of the United States at the League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission meeting, today led an "offensive" against the German-Soviet proposal for direct limitation of war materials.

Mr. Gibson who is United States ambassador to Belgium, announced that the United States withdraws its reservations regarding the French suggestion for indirect limitation of war materials and military budgets.

The American delegate hastened to explain that, while the United States adheres to the French report regarding indirect limitation of stocks of war materials and military budgets, "America desires complete publicity regarding the amount of war supplies on hand." Failing to obtain this desired publicity the United States would prefer categorical, direct limitation, Mr. Gibson added.

"The United States," continued Ambassador Gibson, "is ready to support the majority whose national defense rests chiefly upon land troops."

YOUNG GIRL FIGHTS PROHIBITION AGENTS

Pulls Off Shoes, Hurts Them at Officers. Then Doffs Stockings

CLEVELAND, May 2—A 16-year-old girl, who fought like a little wild cat, furnished federal prohibition agents with a busy few minutes late yesterday, they revealed today.

The agents and a policeman were sent to arrest Mrs. Ernest Epstein. The girl joined the older woman and demanded that the officers let her alone. She struck and kicked one of them, they said, until they threatened to take her into custody, also.

Then, according to the story, the girl pulled off her shoes, threw them at the officers, and took off her stockings as well.

"Now take me," she challenged. The agents complied but the girl was released at federal building after shoes and stockings had been provided her. Mrs. Epstein was held under $1,000 bond.

First Meetings Are Held by Committees Selected for Community Campaign

Personnel of Three Important Groups Named in Plans for Soliciting Fund; Entire Corps for Drive To Total 100 Members

Selection of personnel of three committees to have charge of certain phases of the Marion Community Fund drive has been made by fund officers and heads of the committee. These committees are the committee on out-of-town owners, ladies, the project committee and the men's territorial division. Additional names are still to be added to the latter, when, when completed, will comprise 100 members.

The committee on out-of-town owners is headed by Morgan Burke as chairman. Other members are M. J. McDermott, J. H. Maish, and Roy L. Garrison. This committee will hold its first meeting in connection with the community fund campaign at headquarters in the Marion Club Tuesday night.

HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The project committee is headed by M. C. Watson. Other members are Earl N. Hall and A. W. Ketter. This committee met for the first time yesterday afternoon.

Another important committee, the men's territorial division, met at noon today at headquarters. The meeting was called for the purpose

ROCKEFELLER AIDS CATHOLICS' DRIVE

NEW YORK, May 2—With the declaration that "human sympathy cannot be divided by sectarian lines," John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has donated $250,000 to the Catholic Charities appeal, it was announced by Cardinal Hayes.

"In trying to meet human needs, we are, all of us, Catholics, Protestants and Jews alike, serving a common cause," the junior Rockefeller said.

of selecting 16 chaplains. When completed the committee will consist of one colonel, four majors, 10 captains and 80 lieutenants. Charles H. Italy has been selected to head the committee as colonel. The majors are James R. Smith, Homer R. Wood, A. A. Vanatta and Bennett Bladley.

J. L. Ackerson, general chairman of the community fund campaign, today issued a statement in which he outlined eight advantages of a community fund chest.

Advantages Listed

Ackerson's statement follows: 1. Each agency is required to submit a budget, which is carefully studied by a committee of leading business men.

2. It saves time and energy, since those who volunteer their services are called on but once a year instead of 10 times.

3. It will save money—one campaign cost instead of 10.

4. It will eliminate duplication of

VAN WERT FAIRGROUNDS

TO BE MADE INTO PARK

VAN WERT, May 2—Van Wert, which has been wanting a park for all these years, while the county fairground lay idle 51 weeks of each year, will have its park, and the fairground is to be the site of the park. A new organization known as the Van Wert County Parks association, is behind the movement. The plan calls for a swimming pool, baseball diamond and other recreational facilities on the fairground property, which would be open to the public as a recreational center during the warmer months, and without interfering with the annual fair. A contract with the fair board is to be entered into.

The movement was begun by the Kiwanis club, whose club speaker from a large city pointed out what a splendid opportunity many small towns were passing up in not using their fairgrounds for parks.

April Runs True to Form With Fourteen Rainy Days

As far as weather is concerned, the month of April this year apparently lived up to its reputation, according to a monthly summary of the reports as given by Dr. E. H. Hoffenberger, Marion's official weatherman.

According to past records, April should be changing continuously from bright summer sunshine to cloudy and rainy weather and a glance at the weather chart for last month shows considerable change in temperature, an unusual number of partly cloudy days, and an equally large amount of rainfall.

The temperature ranged from a point 27 degrees above zero on April 2 to 84 degrees on the sixth. This variation contrasts strangely with reports of other months. Despite several warm spells, the temperature registered about 18 degrees above freezing on an average for the month.

There were over six inches of rain fall during the month, the heaviest shower falling on the second day. It rained 14 days out of the 30 and on 10 of those days, the sun didn't show itself at all. There were 18 partly cloudy days in the month, and only two when the sun showed from dawn until it set.

Too prevailing winds came from the south and west. During the past winter months, the wind was from the northwest, but with the advent of April, a change developed which resulted in warmer weather.

Frosts were experienced April 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, apparently not doing much damage to the fruit crop, as only few trees were in full bloom. Thunder showers came on April 4 and 11.

Increasing cold winds came with the rain and cold weather, destroying several trees in Marion and vicinity.

uncommon fact that a red conference was held in Moscow without an attendant riot.

The Mexican revolt, which is just about as good as ended, has cost $15,000,000, to say nothing of the loss of hundreds of human lives. It's a staggering price to pay for thwarted political ambitions.

Twins sisters who married twin brothers probably twin alimony. It's a sad fact that lasting.

Democracy has selected a dry to manage its national headquarters in Washington in pur-

out the slightest intent to give offense, we want to say that a dry Democracy certainly would cause the country to sit up and take notice.

A pilot, upon landing at Niles, Michigan, found his plane riddled with shot and actually professed not to understand how it got shot up despite the fact that he flew over the Chicago suburb of Cicero. A man like that would get lost in a one-street town even though he had a map.

The announcement of the department of

amount probably went for permanent waves.

The new 10,000-ton German cruiser, Ersatz armaments and speed capable of dealing with the German cruiser. It's amazing how much worry one freak warship may cause a people naturally nervous.

This may be said for Pennsylvania's new law providing for life imprisonment for a fourth conviction for a felony; it is optional and not mandatory on the court. In other words: it gives the court the power "to make the punishment fit the crime," which is within the limits of sense and reason.

An observer up in Alaska says the contact of the Alaskan Eskimo with the white man is ruining him. Since he is able to make from six to seven dollars a day at common labor and get from $500 to $1,000 for skins taken by him in the winter, he has gone in for riotous living with disastrous results. Come to think of it, easy money has had much the same effect in milder climates.

Courtesy to Visitors.

So many and pointed have been the complaints on the part of motorist visitors to Atlantic City regarding the annoyances to which they have been subjected there by the police, that the authorities of that resort have decided to work an absolute reversal of their present method of handling vehicular traffic.

Heretofore the practice in Atlantic City has been to yellow tag the vehicles of visitors and townspeople alike, notifying them to appear at police headquarters and answer to this or that infringement on the traffic laws, some of which could not possibly be known to those driving into the city for the first time. Under the new plan, which it is hoped to have inaugurated before the rush season sets in, blue cards will in great part supplant the old-time yellow.

The city director of public safety has decided to give Atlantic City a reputation for politeness to visitors. Those who, through lack of understanding of the traffic rules, park in the wrong way or in places in which parking is barred, or otherwise violate the traffic ordinance, save in cases where personal injury is suffered or damage to property done, will be courteously greeted by the police and advised how to proceed to conform to the rules.

In cases where the motorist is not in the vicinity when his car is visited by the police, it will be tagged with a blue card welcoming him to the city and advising him of such departures from the usual run of traffic rules as obtain there.

We believe it is the policy of the local police department to overlook offenses unintentionally committed by visiting motorists; that it makes a practice of giving them the benefit of the doubt, but if other cities can go still further in developing good will toward the city on the part of out-of-town visitors there is no reason why this city can not do the same. In any event, the matter is worthy of consideration.

A World-Famous Art Treasure.

This is the day set for the sale of the world-famous Barberini or Portland vase, the finest piece of mosaic craftsmanship in carved glass known to man, which has been a prized exhibit in the British museum in London for the last 119 years and enthralled antiquarians throughout the world.

"Owing to the exigencies of the present
times," as he explained it, the Duke of Portland announced several months ago that his art gem would be put up at auction, this afternoon, and sold to the highest bidder, and hours before this may come to the eye of the reader, the masterpiece may have passed into other hands.

The sale of the vase is of particular interest here in America, aside from its great value as a work of art unmatched of its kind, by reason of the recent statement of the London Times that it will eventually find its way to the United States.

The vase, which is of a rich dark blue embellished with perfectly-carved figures in white, is perhaps ten inches high. Not so impressive at first glance, close inspection brings out all its marvelous workmanship and wonderful coloring. It is after this vase that what is generally known as Wedgwood is designed, but cursory comparison of the two vases shows how lamentably far the artisans of the present limp behind the craftsmen of the past.

The early history of the vase is shrouded in mystery. The master craftsman who produced it and the place of its production are alike unknown. It has been a heirloom of the Portland family since the dowager Margaret Duchess of Portland bought it in 1777 from Sir William Hamilton, who at the time was the British minister in Naples. He acquired it by purchase from James Byers, an English antiquarian, who lived in Rome from 1750 to 1790. Byers purchased it from the family of Pope Barberini, who was at the time living in somewhat reduced circumstances.
Beyond that, nothing is known of its history.

The vase finally became the property of the third Duke of Portland, and his son placed it in the British museum in 1810. So long was it one of the choicest works of that great storehouse of world treasures, that the British public assumed, up to the time of this announcement that it was soon to be sold, that it was the property of the government. In 1815 a fanatic intentionally smashed it into many pieces, but the pieces were so skillfully put together by the museum officials that it requires close inspection to find the cemented joints.

Up to the time the vase was thus broken,
it was assumed that it was of chalcidion.
The breaking betrayed the secret of its composition. It was then found to have been fashioned in a glass of a dark rich blue tint overlaid by white glass. The craftsman having produced the two layers of color, then curved the white layer away until his design in white, generally accepted as representing the marriage of Peleus and Thetis, stood out on the background of dark blue.

And so it is that this repaired piece of glassware is today attracting the attention of the world. Papers all over the world announced its forthcoming sale; papers all over the world will carry the story of its selling.
And on down the ages, unless it is destroyed, it will be given frequent reference as one of the world's art treasures, because art never dies.

A woman up at Spencer has been given a $10,000 verdict for damages sustained by her when the dome of a tank car, which exploded on a nearby track, crashed into her bedroom where she was sleeping and set her house afire. In this old tale of tears and sorrow, seemingly, we are never safe.

From Wisconsin comes report of highly-developed police efficiency. The head of a Fond du Lac jewelry company reported to the police the theft of $6,000 in bonds from the company's safe, and the police located at Oshkosh the car in which the robbers made their escape, and the county sheriff announced that arrests would be made before the end of the day, before the jeweler remembered he had placed the bonds in another place.

A party made up of eight Italians has left Milan for Bergen, Norway, where a whaler is to be boarded the 15th of the present month and a search for the wreckage of the Italia and the six missing members of its crew undertaken. No announcement has been made as yet regarding arrangements for rescuing the rescue party.

The young radio expert of White Plains,
New York, who strangled his estranged wife to death after beating her up with a revolver, hailed her body to a n-r-by woodland and,
after a week, soaked it with benzene and set it afire, insists that he loved her and wanted her to live with him again. It is not for us to question his assertion, but we can not help reflecting that the course he pursued to effect a reconciliation was a bit strenuous.

May 1 disorders in France, Germany and Latvia were being compared with those in former years, the authorities of the three lands having barred red demon flags. Jaywalkers and reds should be permitted to indulge in orgies and destroy property running into thousands and thousands of dollars every May day has long been a merry time in the New world has been unable to understand.

Senator Brookhart, who is championing the debenture plan, has let the cat out of the
bag. Speaking of the house farm relief bill, he said: "This bill doesn't spend one dollar for the farmer. It merely provides for loans which are to be paid back." So it's an out-and-out cut to the farmer the debenture people plan. Well, that was our understanding, but we didn't imagine the champions would have the nerve to admit it.

Give Body a Chance.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

More frequently this year than ever I have urged you to watch out if you have had a hard cold, the measles, whooping cough or influenza.
It is a common thing to have a cough after one of these ailments. That is a remnant of the disease and should not be neglected.

The whole family rejoices after the patient has "recovered." He has been confined to the house so long it seems good to get him into the open.
That is believed to be nature's way to complete the restoration of health.

But the trouble about it is, not every patient is willing and able to make the necessary efforts.
The little walks in the sunshine, alternating with short naps, and the eating of plenty of nourishing food—these are essential to full return to health and vigor. But inclination to do these things is lacking.

It is not to be expected that one who has had a long sickness, with high fever and great prostration, can rush back to hard work. It is a mistake to do so.

Yet, nobody wants to "loaf on the job," or to be "yellow." The fear of what one's associates may say or think is a spur to hard work before the body is prepared for it.

So the frail convalescent, wobbling on his feet and dizzy in the head, does not know what to do. He thinks he ought to go to work, but knows he does not feel able to do so.

The ambitious parent lates to have the child out of school a single day longer than absolutely necessary. The poor youngster, too weak to resist, goes to school a couple of weeks too soon.

Do not forget that it takes time to recover normal health after an acute illness. The system has been poisoned by the products of disease. The resources of vitality have been exhausted. The nervous system does not react as it should. The heart is weakened from overwork during the high fever. The muscles are soft and flabby.

Time alone, aided by rest, sunshine and frequent small meals of nourishing food, can remove the effects of the disease. Even though you think it is wicked "to waste so much time," I beg of you to be sensible about the matter. You will be the winner in the long run.

May I say a word to the parents, too? Your child, who has had one of the contagious diseases of early life, must not be considered as on the way to full recovery until the scales show increasing weight.

There is sure to be loss of weight as a consequence of one of these attacks. At least, during the period of illness there will not be that gain of weight which children of growing age are expected to show. Until the scales give you a favorable response, don't hurry the child into hard work.

Similar advice should be followed by adults.
Until the strength returns, don't begin to put in full time. You may do the rest part of your work provided it does not tire you. But take it easy for a while, certainly until the cough is gone.

Observation of these suggestions by every person who does not set up well after an illness will prevent many a case of tuberculosis. Please be sensible.

Editorial Opinion.

MR. HUGHES SPEAKS.

In his address to the American Society of International Law, Mr. Charles Evans Hughes presented a very judicious view of the relation of the United States to the World court and the League of Nations. In brief, the contribution of Mr. Hughes was that the United States is compelled by the facts of international life to recognize the existence of established methods of settling international disputes in a pacific manner and can not decently avoid close contacts with such international agencies. He did much to clarify the World court situation, indicating with out equivocation that the court is not going to take orders from the league, to the detriment of this country.

Mr. Hughes' party has since 1920 been unalterably opposed to American participation in the League of Nations. It remains thus. But cooperation is increasing each year until today we are virtually an associate member. Through the medium of the Kellogg pact and our probable entrance into the World court, we have reached a working arrangement which gives us the advantage of league membership without the dangerous responsibilities that would ordinarily accompany it.
The point that Mr. Hughes has been attempting to drive home to the American people for eight years is simply that the United States can not afford to scorn established agencies for international cooperation. A peaceful world regime is too important to us. So he urges close cooperation with the league and the World court, dealing with these institutions as convenient groups, rather than the clumsy device of dealing with nations individually, as was the case before the late war.
No less distinguished a public figure than Mr.
Hughes could say this and "get by with it." Coming from him, it will perhaps bear fruit in future American foreign policy.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE PIGMY AND THE GODDESS.

Ladies and gentlemen, meet Mr. Pigmy. He is the dried-up, wizened man of the future. That is,
he is, provided the physical educators foregathered in annual convention, are not out of step. Mr.
Pigmy is the product of the asexual chair and the desk over which he bends daily. The little fellow is sallow, anemic, pulsed and stunted by long hours in badly ventilated office buildings.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, meet the goddess.
She is the future woman, a combination of Diana and Venus. Why? Because of outdoor sports now common among women. Add interpretive dancing.
Feminine ugliness is already becoming decadent.
Says Mabel Lee, instructor at the University of Nebraska. "They say Mabel grew lyrical in picturing the woman of 1950. The woman of the future will not only be beautiful, but she will be dynamic. Before her Mr. Pigmy will cover in shame-faced humility. Will she marry him? If she does the neighbor woman will want to know what in the name of the immortal Cleopatra she can see in him.

But the convention did not adjourn leaving the man destitute of hope. He must exercise. Exercise in recreation has become a national necessity because of present working conditions. There is some sense to that and to the suggestion that children should be trained to use their leisure in healthful ways.—Toledo Blade.

Dinner Stories.

The archbishop had preached a splendid sermon on the beauties and joys of married life. Two old Bridesmaids waddled slowly out at the close of the service.

"Ah, 'twas a fine sermon his riv-rince was after tellin' us."

"Indeed it was. An' I wish I knew as little about as he does."

"Aren't you ashamed? Four of you hitting one little boy?"

"It's all right, mum. He told us where we could steal some apples and we're just giving him his share of what we got."

Farmer—"I never see such a season. My corn isn't an inch high."

Neighbor—"Isn't it? Why the sparrows have to kneel down to eat mine."

Lord Dewart, as famous for his wit as for his whisky, was once introduced to a young lady named Moore-Moore. Later in the conversation he inadvertently addressed her as Miss Moore.

"Your lordship," she said crisply. "My name is Moore-Moore—with a hyphen."

"Ah, yes. I'm sorry. And mine is Dewar-Dewart, with a siphon."

The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all quit the wicked; the Lord hath His seat in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.—Nabum 1:3.

Prayer—"Praise the Lord for He is glorious. Never shall His promises fail."

New York Day by Day.

BY O. D. MINYUE.

New York, May 2.—In the Harlem "Black Heil" is a large and clamorous to be Negro-Jews and worshippers in a synagogue. There are about 2,000 who, however, are the original Israelites of the tribe of Judah and that white Jews are descendants of the ten lost tribes.

The congregation is both orthodox and unorthodox. They keep the Saturday Sabbath, eat only kosher meat, observe the dietary laws of Passover, fast on Yom Kippur, but they do not deny Jesus. There are, however, two other congregations of the colored Jewish faith, who deny Jesus.

The more liberal body claim they are Abyssinians. Their bishop, a dapper, reddishcolored man who delivers sermons in Hebraic-Hebrew. His church is the Holy Church of the Living God, an old brown stone house, putting off a prominent corner on 121st street.

On the wall is the Hebrew alphabet, and in the rear a stained glass window of the Christian cross and crown. Worshipers upon entering touch a small brass object on the door—the mezuzah—and whisper "Shal-lom," which means "Peace." Old men wear long black coats and high hats.

The church music consists of a saxophone, guitar and tambourine—to correspond with kymor, the tibia and the navel of Hebrew origin. It starts off slowly in the manner of the tom-tom in the deep African jungle and increases in tempo until it becomes almost modern jazz.

Members of the congregation stand and sway to the rhythm which they frequently punctuate with "Hallelujahs," but there is no game meeting hysteria. In the strictly orthodox synagogues the preachers are known as rabbis and are said to be men of deep learning.

The sermons are really a mixture of Hebrew and English. A passage from the Hebrew will be followed by an explanation in English. In the prayer, God's blessing is invoked for "the true children of Israel." Harlem says its Negro-Jews are almost invariably hard-working and excellent citizens.

On a Harlem curb is a blind and one-armed war veteran who appears at intervals to sing ballads in a marvellous tenor. His voice—like the sweet song of a robin impaled on a thorn—has that tender and sympathetic quality that renders a black lute and moists every eye.

Every large hotel has an odd character for a permanent guest. In one on Fifth avenue an ordinary old lady in rustling black silk makes a grand entry into the grill nightly at 11, drinks a rye highball from her own flask, eats a plate of ice-cream, and departs. At another northward is a gentleman with side-wheel whiskers and hair fluffed up like a frozen sea wavelet, who wears correct dinner clothes save for a flaming red bow tie. He occupies eight rooms and his sole companion is a pet squirrel. Another eccentric and his wife dine in family in their suite every night and have a two-piece orchestra play while the meal progresses. But the prize dodo is a bachelor in a Park Avenue hotel who in his neurotic remoteness dines every night in full dress all alone in his apartment.

Florists declare a play two years ago whose disputing theme was symbolized by a bouquet of violets has almost killed the sale of these flowers. Ladies will not longer wear them at luncheon, dinner or to the play.

Tabloid photographers were first to call chorus girls "blonds"—as only a tabloid photographer can handle it out of the mouth sideline. Nothing has added more gaiety to nations than the Rabelaisian readiness of tabloid snappers.

"Your frequent references to art and architecture," writes Cedric G., "are quite amusing. How long have you been a collector?"

Such is the glory that comes in an outstanding collector of steamship circulars. Nobody ever hears of him and I'm off to some daisied meadow for a quiet snail.

I am conscious of the architectural pre-eminence of St. Peter's in Rome, but it is a little too bewildering for me. My speed is the St. Louis union station.—Copyright, 1929,

Set of Principles Fixes Definite Regulations for Community Fund Drive

Subscriptions Made in First Annual Campaign Will Be for Fiscal Year Ending April 30, 1930; Governing Rules
Adopted by Executive Committee

Year of Marion's first community fund campaign, May 1, 1929, and end of the year, according to the set of principles adopted by the executive committee, will govern the community fund drive. They follow:

GOITRE

A new treatment for goitre has been developed by the W. T. R. Laboratory, 1218 Southern Bldg., Battle Creek, Mich., which many people will regard to be the long-sought specific for this unsightly and dangerous disease. Many of the largest and most famous goitres begin to recede almost immediately. They gradually get smaller, and in many cases are entirely gone in a few weeks. It is equally efficient in cases of toxic and so-called inside goitres. The treatment is harmless and can be used with perfect safety at home.

A 48-page illustrated booklet on the causes, dangers and Non-Surgical Treatment of Goitre, issued by the Laboratory, fully explains the new treatment and will be mailed free to any interested sufferer.—Adv.

sons shall be requested to organize their soliciting and collecting media. The Marion Community Fund asks that no coercion be used in securing pledges from employees.

The deduction from pay system is recommended at the discretion of the employer and with the approval of the employer.

Subscriptions of employees shall be reported and published separately from the subscription of the company.

A corporation gift shall not be construed to include the subscriptions of its officers, executives or stockholders.

Publish daily in newspaper all companies making their quota, as an "Honor Roll" of the 1929 fund subscribers.

Subscriptions, other than employee, shall be payable in cash, monthly or quarterly, beginning May 1, 1929.

The plan of solicitation, other than the Industrial Division and Big Gifts Group, will be on the block system, that is, each captain will be assigned a definite territory and he and his team will be responsible for the solicitation of everybody in that territory.

The public shall be fully informed regarding the work of the participating agencies in the Community Fund.

The expenditure of all funds raised in this campaign will be in the hands of a permanent organization to be perfected at the conclusion of the campaign.

All subscriptions received in the campaign shall be audited by a public

Homesteaders Ploved to Give Up Land
Because of Grasshoppers

DENVER—Homesteaders who took up claims on nearly 100,000 acres of land in Rio Blanco and Montezuma counties in Colorado but were forced to abandon their land because of an invasion of crickets and grasshoppers for two successive years, will have opportunity to reclaim their lands, according to announcement from the district land office in Denver.

Copies of recent legislation were received by the Denver land office from the general land office in Washington stating that by going through proper procedure, the evicted homesteaders may regain their land and by completing their term of residence, prove up on their title.

The act provides that within 90 days, the entryman shall file notice with the secretary of the interior that the invasion of swarms of crickets and grasshoppers caused them to leave, and that they have again taken up residence in good faith with intention of maintaining it until title is granted.

According to tests by scientists in Vienna most letters on an ecologist's card can be identified under yellow light than under blue or white.

TWO ENTRIES NOW IN PRIMARY LIST

Candidate for Mayor and One for Council Only Early Office Seekers

Six weeks remain in which candidates may file their declarations with the county board of elections. All declarations must be filed by June 11. In the interim local politics can be expected to show considerable pickup. The bars to prospective office holders will go up at midnight, Friday, June 14.

Speculation as to possible political trends apparently is no more active than the probable candidates themselves. For several months various names have been suggested by the political prophets as possible candidates for this or that office. With the passing of weeks the lists have failed to change materially other than an occasional denial on the part of several that they expect to become candidates for any office.

Republicans Take Lead
Republicans so far have shown more activity than Democrats. This is probably due to the fact that most city offices are at present held by Republicans. Democrats have been slow in suggesting possible candidates and members of the party have likewise been reticent in making the first move in their own behalf.

Interest in the coming campaign and election centers on the mayoralty race for at least two chief reasons. First, the office is the most important in the city administration, and, second, the public and prospective candidates are waiting to see what Mayor Henry M. Murphy will do in regard to seeking the office in his own right.

About the first of the year Murphy succeeded the late Earl M. Huen as head of the city government. Since he is already in the office it is logical to consider him a potential candidate, at least until he declares otherwise. He has made no such declaration as yet.

His declaration of candidacy, should it be made, will probably narrow the field of candidates at least as far as Republicans are concerned. Murphy has said that he will await results of his first few months in office before acting in regard to the campaign for reelection.

Listed as Possibilities
James L. Messinger, W. B. Strayer, Dr. C. J. Nichols, Dr. J. G. Seiter, O. A. Brendell, W. G. Slack and H. E. Prettyman are among those who have been suggested along with Murphy as possible Republican candidates for mayor. Some of these can be counted upon to stay out of the race should Murphy announce his candidacy.

Messinger is now serving as county treasurer. He will complete his second term Sept. 1. Nichols and Seiter are both former mayors. Strayer is now city safety director. Brendell is service director. Both Strayer and Brendell are Haren appointees. Slack is now councilman-at-large. Prettyman is president of council. Not any of these, however, have definitely declared that they would be candidates.

City Auditor J. J. Landey, Republican, will be a candidate for reelection. A Democratic opponent has not yet been suggested.

R. O. Snare, Republican, city treasurer, is expected to seek another term. Attorney Carter M. Patton, present city prosecutor, will be a candidate for city solicitor to succeed Attorney George T. Geran. Geran has indicated that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself. So far Patton is the only prospect in the field for head of the city legal department. Patton has been actively identified with local Republican politics for several years.

Council prospects remain to be considered.
R. E. Prettyman, president of council, can be expected to be a candidate for mayor or for reelection as president of council. H. E. Good and A. H. Williams, councilmen-at-large, have not indicated their political plans. Slack's plans are also unknown.

Other councilmen who will be forced to seek reelection to council or some other office unless they wish to retire from politics are J. A. Wilkins, first ward, T. J. Mead, second ward, J. A. Miller, third ward, Grant Haldeman, fourth ward, J. M. Schneider, fifth ward, and L. E. Starr, sixth ward.

MOUSER FILES P. O. BUILDING BILLS

Congressman Introduces Measures for Galion and Upper Sandusky

Congressman Grant E. Mouser, Jr. of Marion, representative from the Eighth Ohio district, introduced his first bills yesterday. The bills provide for new postoffice buildings at Galion and Upper Sandusky.

Both cities had previously made application for new postoffice buildings but the introduction of the bills yesterday by Congressman Mouser was the first definite step toward the passage of the necessary legislation for their erection. It is expected that with bills will be considered by congress during its present session, which is expected to end before July 1.

Cover Complete Cost
The bills, as introduced by the congressman, carry a request for an appropriation not to exceed $50,000 for each office. This sum, according to information from Washington today, is to cover the cost of purchasing site, erection and equipping of the buildings.

Information concerning the type of building to be erected in each of the cities, in case the bills are approved by congress, has not been made public. It is understood, however, that they will be modern in all respects and will be built in accordance with standards set by the United States postal department.

The congressional appropriation for the buildings, in case the bills pass, will include funds for the installation of modern vaults, heating and ventilating systems and adequate fixtures besides the purchase of sites and erection of the buildings.

STORY A "FAKE"

Youth in Kenton Hospital Tells Hoaxman Yarn

KENTON, May 2—After exhaustive investigation, Chief of Police O. D. Sheldon now discredits the story told by Hugh Weaver, 25, of Batavia, that he had been robbed and then thrown from a machine by an unknown man who had given him a "gift."

When picked up here by night police, Weaver complained of a pain in his side and was taken to St. Patrick hospital for observation and treatment. He said he believed he was suffering from appendicitis. Later, according to police he told his attending physician the robbery story.

The young man's mother at Batavia told Chief Sheldon over long distance telephone, he said, that this was the third or fourth time she had received reports of her son having been robbed and thrown from a machine. She is forwarding money for his return home.

FORMER PASTORS TO GIVE TALKS

Celebration Will Continue Throughout Week of May 5

BUCYRUS, May 2—Lincoln Way Methodist Episcopal church will celebrate its Diamond Jubilee with an entire week of services beginning Sunday, May 5, and closing May 12, the momentous occasion bringing back to Bucyrus former pastors and prominent churchmen for a part in the varied program.

This branch of the church was organized in 1851 under the pastorate of the Rev. C. Gahn and the first office of worship was erected in the fall of 1851 on East Warren st., between Walnut and Lane sts., on the south side where the W. A. Riddell company now stands.

Thirty years later this house of worship was sold and a second church built on the corner of Woodlawn and Hopewell aces, where the present beautiful church, erected in the year 1917, under the leadership of the Rev. Charles E. Burkle, at the cost of $95,000 now stands. The Rev. Emil I. Klotz, the present pastor, came to Bucyrus in September, 1927, and his church has a membership of more than 300.

While the anniversary celebration is in progress, different organizations of the church will be in charge of the respective services.

Dr. F. L. Baumann, of Detroit, superintendent of the Michigan District of the denomination, and pastor of Bucyrus church for eight years, will deliver the anniversary sermon Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. His subject will be "Fruit of the Lord's Helped Us."

Sunday night Miss Sandra Georgieva, of Lovelock, Bulgaria, student at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, will speak on "The Pleasant Life of Bulgaria." Miss Georgieva came to America in 1925 and has one more year at the university before she returns to Bulgaria to teach in the American schools.

The lodge has a membership of about 40 and owns its own home. The members occupy the second floor of the building while the Tiro World offices occupy the first floor.

The lodge was granted a charter August 12, 1879 and twice has lost its papers through fire. The record now hanging on the wall of the lodge room is a copy taken from the records of the grand lodge. Hall furnishings and the recital of the lodge were lost in the fire.

FIXES RATE

Commission Gives Ruling on Kenton Man's Complaint

COLUMBUS, May 2—Disposing of a complaint filed by Richard H. Shafer, Kenton, the state utilities commission, it was announced today, held that excessive freight rates had been levied upon shipments of amesite, a rock repair mixture prepared by Shafer.

The commission, accordingly, ordered that the railroads collect on such shipments not to exceed 58 per cent of the rates prescribed in schedule known as the "sixth class" which fixes the following scale:

For a 5 mile shipment, 61 cents for each 2,000 pounds; from 5 to 25 miles, 90 cents; up to 40 miles, $1.07, and ranging up to $1.75 for 300 miles.

THIRD U. S. ATTORNEY "FIRED" BY HOOVER

Widespread Campaign To
"Clean House" in Law Department To Continue

WASHINGTON, May 2—President Hoover's summary dismissal of William A. Degroot, federal district attorney in Brooklyn, is only another step in the widespread campaign to "clean house" in the government's law enforcement machinery, it was said today in administration quarters.

One of the first acts of Attorney General Mitchell upon assuming office was to order a nationwide survey of the work of federal district attorneys, and conditions in their respective districts, all with a view to determining whether they should be continued in office.

In the last six weeks three district attorneys have been retired, all at the instigation of the department of justice. John Cook in Mississippi, William A. Gobar in northern Florida, and now Degroot.

The investigation is continuing, and it is probable that more heads will fall before long.

CHURCH LEAGUE SCHEDULES DRAWN UP

COMPLETE PLANS TO START PLAY MAY 13

Commission Makes Changes in Lineups of Church League No. 2 and Commercial League as Calvary No. 2 Drops Out

WITH schedules of two of four recreation ball leagues drawn up, the only thing remaining to prevent the formal opening of the city ball season in Marion May 13, a week from Monday, is Old Man Weather. Complete schedules for the two Sunday School leagues were announced today at the Y. M. C. A. The schedules for the Industrial and Commercial leagues will be drawn up by the first of next week. Two changes in the lineup of teams were made when Calvary No. 2 dropped out of Sunday school league No. 2. Ashbury was placed in the second league and the Prospect Firemen permitted to play in the Commercial league. Previously, owing to full schedules, the Prospect team had been ruled out of participation in the Marion leagues. It will be the first time in the history of recreation ball here that a team outside the city has been permitted to take part in league play. The new plan may lead to the formation of a county league within the next several years.

GAME ENDS IN 4-4 TIE; TRIBE LOSES CONTEST TO BROWNS

Cincy Sloggers Fail To Deliver When Rallies Fill Bases

BY BOB ELLIOTT
CINCINNATI Reds failed to show any lasting punch to the places yesterday afternoon at Indian field and as a result they lost the Chicago Cubs to a 4-4 deadlock in 13 innings when the game was called to allow the Chicago team to catch a train for the east. Two runs in the last half of the ninth enabled the Reds to tie the score after the Cubs had scored four times in the third frame off Adair's league. Two of these came when Hank Wilson batted a home run into the right field pavilion. Roger Peckinpah's strike of Indians proceeded to lose their fifth game in a row very handsomely to the league leading St. Louis Browns. It was the tribe's first home game after a rather disastrous road trip and although they looked a great deal better than any other time in the previous week there is still plenty of room for improvement. Young Wesley C. Ferrell lost his first game of the season when the Browns rapped him for three runs in the fifth inning.

Pass Up Ninth
The tribe had a good chance to pull it out of the fire in the last half of the ninth when men were on second and third with one out. Luke Sewell's long fly to McGowan scored Falk from third and then Johnny Holapp batting for Ken Holloway stopped on the first base line to pick four leaf clovers and Kress threw him out. The St. Louis shortstop knocked down Holapp's hard smash just over second base and then kicked it around for a couple of minutes, decided to throw it and beat Mr. Holapp by at least a half a step. Down along the Ohio "ribber" the Reds saw two rallies in the twelfth and thirteenth innings go for naught when with the bases filled and only one out the Red bats could not bring in the necessary run. In the twelfth with the sacks clogged Drexler forced Walker at home for the second out and Ford filed to Wilson. In the thirteenth frame Shaner came to the plate with the bases filled to capacity and promptly proceeded to pop a punt fly to English. Ethen Allen then let a perfectly good third strike sail by him and the game was over at least until Sunday Aug. 25 when it will be replayed as part of double header.

Cubs Are Outfit
The Reds outfit the Cubs 15 to 10 mainly through the excellent relief pitching of Kenneth Ash and Big Turn to Page 15

TUNNEY TO RETURN TO UNITED STATES BY WAY OF CANADA

Former Champion Seeks To Avoid Newspaper and Camera Men

BY DAVID J. WALSH
NEW YORK, May 2.—Mr. J. J. Tunney, the pugilist who perched the error of his ways before it was too late, is soon to be returned to us filled with old world culture and a vast distaste for the reporter who doesn't know his place. This place may or may not be with the scullery help, depending on the point of view. Anyhow, I am informed today that he intends to return to America by way of Montreal in order to circumvent the ship news men and photographers and that probably he will arrive in New York strictly incognito, if not by stealth. Personally, I feel that Tunney is absolutely entitled to what he wants and should get it. He has asked for privacy and, during recent months, it may have been noted that he has attained privacy in a degree that might have sufficed the keeper of a light house.

BUCKEYE COLFERS WIN FIRST BIG TEN MATCH

COLUMBUS, May 2.—Ohio State's western conference champion golf team won its first encounter with a Big Ten opponent, when the Scarlet and Gray defeated the University of Indiana on the Spinto country club course here yesterday.

Although the Hoosiers won the afternoon round, they were unable to overcome the lead which the Buckeyes had taken in the morning matches, and the score stood at 9-5-5.

EAGLES WILL BACK JUNIOR BALL TEAM

Nelson Irvin Is Manager of K. of C. Nine This Year

The Dodgers, champions of last year's junior baseball league, will be backed by the Eagles lodge according to action taken at a meeting of the organization last night. Russell McCann was named manager of the team.

Nelson Irvin is again manager of the K. of C. team. He has had his boys working out for the past month and although two younger outfielders, is the only regular left from last year he expects to build a good team out of the material available. Five substitutes from last year are among those who have reported. They are: Greenlund, catcher; Drake, infielder; and outfielders: Shobe, Fortner and Neidhart. Among the new men are infielders Collins and McMann and outfielder Redline. Manager Irvin's squad has been strengthened by the signing of the Dixie brothers who last year played with the Kewanee team. Jack Dixie is a pitcher and shortstop and his brother Bob plays second.

HITTING HONORS ARE PASSED BY YANKEES TO TIGERS AND A'S

Detroit Average Is .320, While Mackmen Pole Out 29 Bingles

THE world's champion New York Yankees have no monopoly on slugging honors in the American League this season. The Detroit Tigers have been hitting at a 320 clip, and yesterday the Athletics went on a terrific hitting spree against the Red Sox.

The Mackmen maulers gave Ruth Gehrig and Co. a mark to shoot at by piling out 29 bingles, including three home runs, and scoring 23 runs. A batting bee in the sixth inning netted 10 runs. The Mackmen almost equalled the modern home hit record of 31, held by the Giants, and the Athletics can record of 27, held by Cleveland.

Jimmy Fox and Al Simmons also contributed five hits. Fox, cutting two homers and Simmons out, Manager Carrigan of the Sox called upon 21 players in an effort to stem the tide. The Sox scored six runs.

The first inter-sectional contest of the year will be played today when the Phillies entertain the Cubs, the other east vs. west clashes being held over until tomorrow and Saturday. The Cubs and Reds battled 18 innings to a 4-to-1 tie in Cincinnati yesterday after the Pirates' outburst had scored two runs in the ninth to tie the score. Hank Wilson hit his fourth home.

The only other game played was another 15-inning tie contest between the Cardinals and the Pirates. The Pirates, like the Reds, tied the score in a ninth-inning rally. Wee Willie Sheerel went the route for the Cards, while Bill, who started for Pittsburgh, was knocked out in the fifth inning. The score was 4 to 4.

Bereaved Public Throngs Waldorf-Astoria Halls for Last Time; Famous Old-Hostelry is Closed

Thousands of Sightseers
Swarm Corridors in Final Hours

AUCTIONEERS ON HAND

Five Hundred Men and Women Attend Last Dinner in Ballroom

NEW YORK, May 3.—Like the bars of the Waldorf-Astoria, the famous old-Hostelry is closed for the last time. A throng of sightseers swarmed the corridors and ballroom as the auctioneers went to work on the last day of the famous old-Hostelry.

To make the closing more complete,
the old hotel's guests still lingered on even though the auctioneers were at work. The guests, however, were not to be disturbed. A battered public thronged the corridors of the famous old-Hostelry for the last time last night. There was laughter, music, life and the familiar. But it's all over now.

Swarm Corridors
The most of the obsequies were held on the first five floors, as the top floors were stripped of furniture and fixtures a few weeks ago.

Thousands of sightseers and thrill seekers swarmed the corridors in the final hours and here and there the famous old-Hostelry could be heard backing their bargains. Proprietors fought and carried away, feeling as they did so that they were carrying a little of the Waldorf's immortal glory away with them. And perhaps they were.

The last affair—a dinner—was held in the ballroom and more than 500 men and women attended. It was a dinner unlike any the Waldorf had ever seen. A man with a sense of humor would have called it a wake.
Deliver Eulogies

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, was to have presided at the dinner. He was unable to attend, but there were enough other famous men there to make up for his absence.

All of them had eulogies to deliver and, needless to say, they were to be delivered on the last day of the famous old-Hostelry. Numerous eulogies were delivered by celebrities who had been guests in the famous old-Hostelry. One was from Marshall Joffe of France.

At exactly 12 o'clock, the first shot of dirt was dropped into the grave and they who had been present at the end departed into the night.
The actual work of dismantling the structure starts immediately.

KONJOLA ENDS TEN YEARS OF LADY'S ILLNESS

New Medicine Proves First and Only Relief in Breakdown After An Operation

"I was never so surprised and delighted in my life, than when Konjola restored me to health," said Mrs.
Daisy Marshall, 2225 Eastern Avenue, Cincinnati.

"My back kept aching ever since I underwent an operation for appendicitis. I grew weaker and weaker despite my attempts to find relief in medicines and treatments. I became nervous and morose. I found medical, indignation and backache added to my miseries.

"I had heard many good reports
about Konjola, and decided to try it.
In four weeks I was completely well.
My friends marvelled at the change in my condition. Digestion was restored, and my nerves soothed. I am gaining rapidly in health and strength, and Konjola has accomplished wonders in building me up. I owe it all to this marvelous Konjola.

Konjola is sold in Marion at Sump & Sons Pharmacy, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.
